

JOHANNES P. WILLHEIM, ESQ.

—

INTERNATIONAL
LAWYER
ARBITRATOR
MEDIATOR
EDUCATOR

jwillheim@willheim.eu

WORK EXPERIENCE

—

2015–present

Jones Day

Partner Global Disputes and Energy

Pepperdine University, Malibu, CA, USA

Adj. Professor Strauss Institute for Dispute Resolution

Adjunct Professor for International Commercial Arbitration and Dispute Management
since July 2018

2005–2015

Willheim Müller Rechtsanwälte, Vienna/Austria

Founding Partner

Head of Dispute Resolution Practice, Head of EU Competition Law and Regulated Industries Practice

2002–2004

Fiebinger, Polak, Leon & Partner, Vienna, Austria

Partner

Head of EU Competition Law Practice

2001

Clifford Chance, Brussels, Belgium

Associate EU Competition Law Lawyer

Represented and advised international clients in cartel and dominance cases as well as compliance matters, assessing a variety of commercial agreements, party representation in EU and multi-jurisdictional as well as Austrian and German merger control proceedings

1997–2001

Fiebinger, Polak, Leon & Partner, Vienna, Austria

Associate Lawyer

Extensive training in corporate and M&A, drafting and negotiating of commercial agreements (distribution, licensing, joint selling and purchasing etc.), extensive arbitration work (including secretary positions), building up of the firm's EU competition law and regulatory practice

1994

Creditanstalt, New York, USA

Trainee Program in international investment banking

1992

Erste Invest Consult, Vienna, Austria

Trainee in International Stock and Bond Trading

EDUCATION

2003–2004

University of Chicago Law School, Chicago, IL, USA

Master of Law (LL.M.)

Master program with strong focus on antitrust law, regulated industries and law and economics

2002–2003

King's College, London, UK

PG Diploma in EU Competition Law (with Merit)

PG Diploma on all aspects of EU competition law, behavioral (anticompetitive agreements and unilateral conduct of dominant undertakings) as well as structural (merger control)

2001–2002

Juridicum, Vienna, Austria

Doctor of Law (Dr. iur. graduated with highest honors)

Doctorial thesis: "The admissibility of cross-border retail price fixing under EU competition law"

2000–2001

University of St. Gallen, St. Gallen, Switzerland

Master of European and International Business Law (M.B.L.-HSG)

Master program in EU business law, with strong focus on EU competition law, corporate and M&A, IP Law, regulated industries, in particular financial services, and WTO law

1992–1996

Juridicum, Vienna, Austria

Magister iuris (Mag.iur., graduated within top 3% of class)

Basic Austrian law degree corresponds to JD Degree in the US

Summer 1992

Yale University, New Haven, CT, USA

Special seminar in American English for Professionals – Law

Summer 1991

Yale University, New Haven, CT, USA

Special seminar in American English for Professionals – Business

BAR ADMISSIONS AND SPECIAL TRAININGS

Admitted to the Austrian Bar.

Registered European Attorney, Frankfurt am Main Bar, Germany.

Harvard Program on Negotiation (2002)

ICC Arbitration PIDA Training, Paris (2005).

ICC Arbitrator's Master Class, Hong Kong (2012).

Incite Business Mediation Training Course (2014 to 2015).

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

ABA International Section (Antitrust and Arbitration Commissions)

ArbAut (Austrian Arbitration Association)

ASA (Swiss Arbitration Association)

German Arbitration Association (DIS)

IBA (Antitrust and Arbitration Commission)

ICC Arbitration Commission

ICC Competition Commission

ICC Task Force on Court Proceedings in Antitrust Damages Claims